COME ONE, COME ALL TO THE 7TH ANNUAL PENN TOWNSHIP – PLEASANT VIEW COMMUNITY DAY SATURDAY, JUNE 6, FROM 10 A.M. TO 2 P.M.

MANHEIM, PA – Sample delicious food and baked goods, sing and dance to the music, interact with street performers, and reconnect with friends and neighbors at the 7th Annual Penn Township – Pleasant View Community Day, to be held rain or shine on Saturday, June 6, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

This year's Community Day celebration coincides with the 60th anniversary of the first resident moving to Pleasant View Retirement Community, and will be a fun-filled day for all ages to enjoy a variety of food vendors, games, music and entertainment. As part of Pleasant View's year-long celebration, a recording room will be available for guests to share their memories of Pleasant View Retirement Community. All are encouraged to bring historical objects, photos and personal stories to share with Pleasant View's oral history project. A photo booth will also be available for guests to take their picture to wish Pleasant View a happy birthday.

Music and entertainment are always a highlight at Community Day, and this year is no exception. Guests can enjoy tunes provided by the Nomads, a classic rock 'n roll band playing songs from the fifties and sixties, watch dance performances by students of Cricket's Performing Arts, and learn about reptiles with Jesse Rothacker with Forgotten Friends Reptile Sanctuary. Street performers including the Magic of Daniel Clemente, and Cissy and the Man will be roaming through the Town Square, sure to delight both the young and the young at heart. Children will also be able to meet miniature horses from Canine Country Club, challenge each other to backyard games, and enjoy a performance to kick off the Manheim Community Library's summer reading program.

Guests should bring their appetite to Community Day, as there will be food of all varieties available throughout the day. Pleasant View's Auxiliary will serve hot dogs and drinks, and the Town Square Café at Pleasant View will offer a boxed lunch including a choice of sub, chips, cookie, a piece of fruit, and a drink. The Manheim Hearts-N-Hands Sertoma Club will offer hamburgers, cheeseburgers, French fries and drinks, while Cub Scout Pack 307 will be selling chicken barbecue dinners. Visitors can satisfy their sweet tooth at the Pleasant View Auxiliary Bake Sale and enjoy an ice cream sundae scooped by Auxiliary members. Guests can make their own flavor combinations of kettle corn at Uncle Jerry's Kettle Corn bar, savor apple dumplings made by the Manheim Central Republican Committee, or sample soft pretzels, spiced pecans and coffee at the Ruth Mackley Democratic Club & Manheim Democratic Committee's food stand. The ever-popular jello eating contest will be back for visitors to compete against each other, and to complete the celebration, birthday cake will be served.

Many of Manheim and Penn Township's finest will be present throughout the day and provide the opportunity for visitors to interact with staff and volunteers from local fire, police, and municipal services. Various community organizations will also have interactive tables on display for guests to learn more about services provided in the community and how to participate. Manheim's Masonic Lodge #587 will again offer the PA Chip program, providing parents and guardians the means to quickly get their child's vital information, including digital photos and video, fingerprints and DNA sample, to first responders in the event of an emergency.

This year, guests are encouraged to donate items for the Humane League of Lancaster County. Items recommended for donation include dog crates, ice cube trays, scratching posts, cat litter, climbing trees, shoe boxes, collars & leashes, baby gates, pet treats (Beggin' Strips and Snausages), empty cereal boxes, wind chimes, paper towel tubes, bubbles, pipe cleaners, and beef or chicken broth.

Guests attending Community Day are advised to park on Pleasant View's campus throughout the day. For more information on Penn Township-Pleasant View Community Day, visit www.penntwplanco.org or www.PleasantViewrc.org.
