PLEASANT VIEW RETIREMENT COMMUNITY HOLDS BENEFIT AUCTION AND BBQ
FRIDAY, JUNE 3

MANHEIM, PA – All are invited to join Pleasant View Retirement Community for its annual Benefit Auction and BBQ on Friday, June 3, at 5:30 p.m.

This year, Pleasant View's main entrance will be transformed into an outdoor garden party under a festive white tent. Guests will have the opportunity to bid on silent and live auction items and dine on a menu of chilled shrimp, beef tenderloin, roasted pork, and delectable desserts, all prepared by Pleasant View's own Dining Services. The evening will be hosted by WGAL's weekday morning co-anchor, Jere Gish.

Many of the auction items available to bid on were donated or handcrafted by Pleasant View residents, including various furniture pieces, a bird house, and a chiming wall clock. Local businesses and organizations have also contributed jewelry, gift baskets, and gift certificates for a variety of amazing experiences throughout Lancaster County.

Event proceeds benefit the Benevolent Care Fund at Pleasant View, which provides supportive funding to ensure residents of Pleasant View can continue to receive quality care, regardless of their financial position.

Cost to attend Pleasant View's annual Benefit Auction and BBQ is $35 per person. Table reservations and sponsorships are also available. To reserve seats or for more information, contact Kelly Lyons at 664-6363 or klyons@PleasantViewrc.org.
